

COLOR YOUR WORLD:

Children's Library Card Art Contest

Monday, June 16 – Monday, July 14, 2025

To celebrate this summer's Color Your World art theme, we're inviting children and teens under the age of 18 to show off their creativity in our Library Card Design Contest!

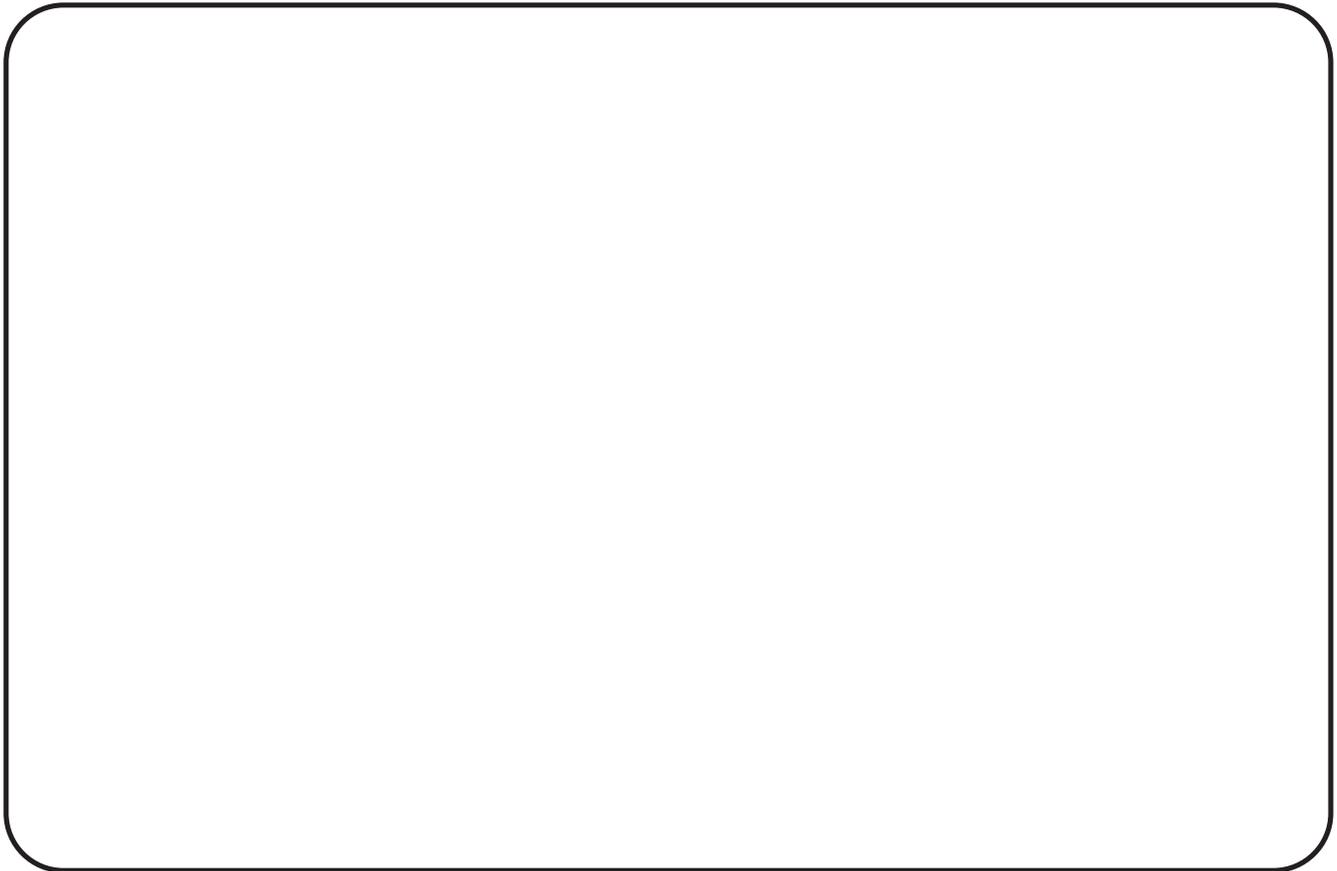

The winning artwork will be featured on a brand-new children's library card for the 2025 Library Card Sign-Up Month in September. A panel of Library staff and community members will select 10 finalists, and the community will vote to choose the winner. Voting will take place July 21–31, both on Facebook and in person at the Library. Limit one entry per person. For a full list of rules, please visit library.nrhtx.com/cardcontest.

Use the template below to create your design for the front of the library card.

This template is oversized to allow room for creativity! The finished card will be 2 1/8" by 3 3/8" (about the size of a trading card). Try to keep any words or important parts of your drawings 1/4" away from the edges so nothing gets cut off.

Creative Works Release

I confirm that the submitted artwork is my child's original work and does not violate any copyright.

I give permission to the North Richland Hills Library to reproduce creative works resulting from my child's participation in the Library Card Design Contest. I understand that submitted designs may be used for official library cards and in library promotional materials, including posters, bookmarks, flyers, forms, the Library's website, and social media. I agree that no royalty, fee, or other compensation will be paid to me for this use.

I acknowledge that the North Richland Hills Library may make changes to the submitted design as needed to fit the dimensions of the library card, add text, or meet printing and branding requirements.

I agree to follow all contest rules and terms.
